MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Daniels Bill - H. R. 9825

l. I talked to Mr. Roger W. Jones, Bureau of the Budget, about the Daniels bill and its relationship to our early retirement legislation. He said he was not sure that the bill was going to move in its present form as the Administration had dug in its heels on some provisions.

STATINTL

2. As I understand it, the Administration agrees with the increase to seven per cent and to work on the unfunded liability, but here the new provisions would add a total of and this the Administration finds hard to take. They are for the restoration of the widows' annuity, but are definitely against the "high three" although they expect this to come eventually, and are also definitely against crediting sick leave as they feel this is not the way to approach it. Mr. Jones feels there is some infighting about the process of getting a rule, and he will try to find out more about it.
